SOMERS

H. T. MILLER School for Dancing 28 Oak Street. aturday Classes commence Oct. 31st Telephono 1082

To men who live a little way

In the Voluntown town meeting this week a 20-mill town tax, the same as last year, was laid. The school meeting that followed the town meeting laid a five-mill tax.

Several parties of local motorists have made the trip over the famous Mohawk trail, thence up the Deerfield river and into Vermont. The follage along this trail is now at its best.

Antone Vito, the goad builder, at Montville, gave his men a pleasant outing at his home in Thompson. They made the trip in a large autotruck Saturday afternoon, returning Monday

In the Voluntown town meeting this week a 20-mill town tax, the same as last dead said that there are now 18 W. C. T. U. missionaries in different parts of the earth and eight of these 18 have made said that there are now 18 W. C. T. U. missionaries in different parts of the earth and eight of these 18 have made said that there are now 18 W. C. T. U. missionaries in different parts of the earth and eight of these 18 have made said that there are now 18 W. C. T. U. missionaries in different parts of the earth and eight of the earth and eight of these 18 have made said that there are now 18 W. C. T. U. missionaries in different parts of the earth and eight of these 18 have made the trip are now 18 W. C. T. U. missionaries in different parts of the earth and eight of the earth and earth earth and earth earth earth earth earth earth earth earth you can call us up or drop us and others is to be cannot consist of caution in causing woodland and other fires.

Miss Julie M. Lippmann's play, Martha-By-the-Day, opened in Stamford Monday night, and the News says: "It would scarcely be possible to say too much in praise of Miss May Robson as Martha."

Miss Julie M. Lippmann's play, Martha-By-the-Day, opened in Stamford Monday night, and the News subject of another paper read by Mrs. Thomas A. Perkins. Mrs. Perkins told the story of a young man on the downward path turned from the evid road by the sight of the little with ribbon. However busy with home cares or church work, every woman can at least wear this silent mesman can at least wear this silent me coats, the new Soft Hats, Shirts. Neckwear, Hosiery, Underwear.

If you can't find it convenient to come here, just 'phone or write. You'll get the satisfaction you want.

Ernest E. Bullard VIOLIN TEACHER

Willimantle two days each

For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Norich. Conn.

a place where to buy feed for your horses and live stock, there are three things to be considered - Quality, Price and Service.

The quality of our feedstuffs is unsurpassed. There is none better obtainable. Our prices will compare favorably with others of the same class of feed. And in point of service our customers will tell you that they always get what they want when they want it. Slosberg's is the place for good feed, at fair prices.

CHAS. SLOSBERG

3 Cove Street

DR. C. R. CHAMBERLAIN Dental Surgeon McGrory Building, Norwich, Conn. vention.

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Friday, Oct. 9, 1914.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Mrs. Peter Ashe and Mrs. Fannie L

Balfour of New London spent Wed

Mrs. Henry Weber and daughter Miss Ida are the guests of The Misses Kinberger of Fitchville.

Jonnie Dawley Billings of Norwich a former student of the Wheeler school has been in North Stonington this

Mrs. Marietta Wright of Norwich

J. B. Whitmore, former roadmaste

W. C. T. U. PARLOR MEETING.

Held with Trinity Methodist Mission-

the welcome accorded the visitors. Mrs

They are watching to see if it really makes people better.

Something must surely be done to awaken the hearts of others who represent us in other lands to a sense of the responsibilities that are theirs as representatives of a Christian civ-

Someone has called Japan Christian-ity's Port Arthur in the far east, Japan stands on the highway of the nations. The worst the west has to give in the

mrs. Starkweather read anothe poem, The Coming Day after which Mrs. Calvin Swan read a paper on A New Bondage for Africa. This paper vividly portrayed the ance cause was shown by those present.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

and dancers who introduced some of the very latest dances and songs proved the feature attraction on the bill at the Auditorium on Thursday and the capacity house at the even-ing's performance brought the dancers back to the limelight with a burst of applicate. Comedy was not lacking as matic two-reel Eclair, proved the fea-ture film. The Hole in the Wall, anookie's Disguise, completed the big

OBITUARY.

like Christ"

ary Society-World Work of W. C.

Puesday evening.

Scrivener, Norwich superintendent, will

Today (Friday) is St. Denis' day in The Groton Long Point postoffic has been closed for the season.

At the Stafford Springs Methodist Governor Baldwin has approved the bill of $4.331 for the Mystic Ora Secure your seats for The Christian at the Colonial. Box office open at 10 . m .- adv.

Many ingenious and novel Hallow-e'en favors are being featured in the

The number of motorcycles legally operated in Connecticut is given in the latest report as 3,232, against 1,873 in

The Senior Holy Name society of St. Patrick's parish has voted to receive communion in a body at the early mass

Most of the Norwich families have returned this week from their Nep-tune Park cottages. Several others will remain until the middle of the

Those for whom Columbus day means a holiday will begin to start off on outings today and Saturday. All the almanacs predict clear weather Monday.

Saturday afternoon, returning Monday

Edgar C. Stoddard of the Crocker house clerical staff left New London Wednesday for New York, where he married in the afternoon Miss Jessica

David R. Kinney and Frank Hun-ter of Norwich were at Lord's Point the past week for several days' re-creation. On one trip they took 5 large flounders, 7 ling, 7 fine sea bass and two monstrous eels. These were ship-ped home.

Wednesday marked the exodus o Black Point summer colony, only five families remaining there now. The express stopped at Niantic Wednes-day and took on about 60 who had made arrangements for a special car on that train.

George L. Scott and assistant of the Tiffany company, New York, have packed the silver and valuables in Morton F. Plant's summer home, Branford house, Eastern Point, for shipment. The goods are to be stored Capt. James E. Denison of Groton has devised a new code of fog signals for ocean and coastwise waters involving the use of only four bell signals and four whistle signals which can be easily learned and will do away with the necessity of a code card.

Norwich guests were present in Tolland when Miss-Pauline Louise Newcomb, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Newcomb, and Donald Johnson Grant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Grant, of Wapping, were married Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride.

Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride.

A Hartford paper states that applications for treatment are being constantly received at the charity board's headquarters in Hartford from persons afflicted with' epilepsy who have been unable to secure accommodations at Mansfield, where only 80 persons can be treated.

This paper vividity portrayed the civils that rum has wrought in Africa and showed the need of missionaries and total abstinence.

Mrs. F. W. Coleman spoke of the czar of Russia, who, it is said, has forbidden his soldiers to drink during the present war and who intends to enforce this rule after the war.

The meeting was a very harmonious one and much interest in the temperance cause was shown by those present. be treated.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. F. W. Guild.

At 1.30 o'clock Thursday morning Emma F., wife of F. W. Guild died at No. 17 Winchester street after a long illness due to a shock which she sufered in July. A second shock on last Friday was the immediate cause of death. Mrs. Guild was 47 years old. death. Mrs. Guild was 47 years old, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lewis, and was born in Auburn, N. Y. On Thanksgiving day fifteen years ago, in Miford, Mass., she was united in marriage with F. W. Guild, the jeweler, and for the past eight years they had resided here. Besides here husband Mrs. Guild leaves eight years they had resided here. Be-sides her husband Mrs. Guild leaves three brothers and two sisters, Charles Lewis of Auburn, N. Y., William Lew-is of North Abington, Mass., Henry Lewis, of Jamestown, N. Y., Mrs. Hat-tic Coggshåll, of Wrentham, Mass., and Mrs. Ada Hazzard of Union Springs, N. Y. Burial is to be in Union Springs, Senator Miner Renominated. At the democratic senatorial convention of the New London-Groton district at the New London court house Thursday morning Alderman Alton T. Miner was unanimously nominated for Vanda Klinck. Vanda Klinck, six year old daughter of Anthony and Josephine Klinck, died at the home of her parents, No. 5 High street, about 2 o'clock Thursday state senator.

The convention was called to order by Everett Crane of Groton, who was made chairman and who also placed the name of Mr. Miner before the conafternoon after an illness of a few claring the days. She is survived by her parents campaign.

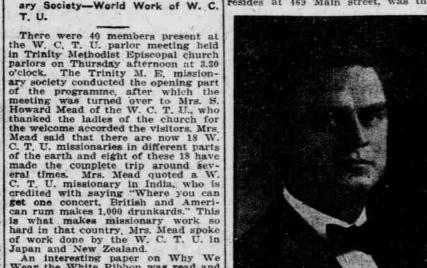

PERSONALS PROHIBITIONIST CONVENTIONS Charles L. Krebs of Richmond, Va., s the guest of friends in this city.

Judge Ayling Endorsed for Judge of Probate-David S. Merritt of Norwich for Senator in 19th District-Charles T Hatch of Mystic in the 20th-Gubernatorial Candidate Addressed the Conventions.

Mrs. Lillian Johnson and Mrs. Ag-nes Johnson, of Norwich were in Ston-ington this week at the inspection of the Relief corps. With an attendance of seven, which | Neely, he said, and Judge Ayling, who included Duane A. Griffin of Granby, who is the candidate for governor on the prohibition ticket, several prohi-bition conventions were held on Thursmade an official inspection of J. F. Trumbull W. R. C. at Stonington evening in the antercom of the

The conventions were called to der by Leon W. Cobbett, who has been working as county organizer ever since the summer. The first was the 19th of the Shore Line electric in Say-brook, now of Norwich, and Thomas Guinan, a road inspector for the trol-ley company in New London, were among the officials who had a special car inspecting the road in the south-ern part of the county this week. district senatorial convention, which includes the towns of Norwich, Pres-ton and Ledyard. S. Howard Mead served as clerk for the convention and also for the Norwich district probate convention which followed.

19th Senatorial District. For the senatorial candidate from the 19th district David S. Merritt, who resides at 469 Main street, was then JUDGE N. J. AYLING.

Saturday afternoon, returning Monday morning.

As members of the W. C. T. U.

We want you to feel that you can call us up or drop us you can call us up or drop us a line any time, and we'll send.

Saturday afternoon, returning Monday morning.

As members of the W. C. T. U.

We love and wear the white ribbon bow. It is the beautiful badge of our organization, heaven born to promote a holy cause. It is a privilege of the state central committees which we are proud. It is a pledge of total abstifience. It is an emblem of patriotism.

The Power of the White Ribbon was the delegates organization, heaven born to promote a holy cause. It is a privilege of the state central committees of total abstifience. It is an emblem of patriotism.

The Power of the White Ribbon was the delegates organization, heaven born to promote a holy cause. It is a privilege of the state central committees of total abstifience. It is an emblem of patriotism.

Notice has been received by agents here of the annual meeting and banquet of the Connecticut Association of Fire Underwriters to be held Oct. 22 in Derby. There will be a banquet in the evening at Clark's hotel.

Edgar C. Stoddard of the Crocker house clerical staff left New London Wednesday for New York, where he members and placed Judge Nelson J. Ayling's name before the convention. He spoke man can at least wear this silent mesual part of Judge Ayling as a broadminded man of good judgment, one who was speaks of total abstinence and of self denial.

A poem, Who Will Share, was then read by Mrs. Jacob Starkweather and was followed by another paper, What a Christian Can Do, by Mrs. Arthur Wyman. Some of the things set forth white ribbon. However busy with home cares or church work, every woman can at least wear this silent mesual page Ayling as a broadminded man of good judgment, one who was above petty jealousles, and treated all people alike with fairness, and said that although Judge Ayling was not definitely identified with the prohibition party he believed the party would not suffer in any detail or in principle by placing him on its ticket, so that although Judge Ayling as a broadminded man of good judgment, one who was above petty jealousles, and treated all people alike with fairness, and said that although Judge Ayling was not definitely identified with the prohibition party he believed the party would not suffer in any detail or in principle by placing him on its ticket, so Wednesday for New York, where he married in the afternoon Miss Jessica Stewart McLean, a graduate nurse of the Memorial hospital, New London.

Wyman. Some of the things set forth ple by placing him on its ticket, so that he took pleasure in nominating the man who was the people's choice fuse to sign any man's petition for life for this office because he had been

Stewart McLean, a graduate nurse of the Memorial hospital, New London.

Christian Mon., Tues., Oct. 12-13, at the Colonial. Seats on sale at 10 a.m., —adv.

This will be a lean year for the export money order business around the holiday season. Every year thousands of dollars have been sent home to foreign lands by local residents at Christmas time, but this year it will be different.

The village houses owned by the Uncas Paper company at Thamesville are being repaired, substantial shutters being hung as a protection to the windows, which have always been a tempting target for the stones of the small boys.

David R. Kinney and Frank Hunter of the constant of the season and the past few years. Oriental people are very practicable and they demand the past few years. Oriental people are carefully weighing Christian in the past few years. Oriental people and they demand they demand they demand the past few years. Oriental people and they demand they demand they are carefully weighing Christian in the Oriental religions, as a vital force.

David R. Kinney and Frank Hunter of the constant of the suit of the court was informed that the case would probably be settled and found true.

Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as the sentiments of Mr. Mead seconded the nomination as well as In the superior court at New London on Thursday morning the attorneys interested in the trial of the suit of the New Haven road against B. A. Armstrong, B. L. Armstrong and the estate of William Perry of New London, asked for time to confer and at 11.30 the court was informed that the case would probably be settled and withdrawn from court. All the witnesses were then excused and the court went out for the day. It will come in today (Friday) at 11 o'clock for a short calendar session.

or a short calendar session.

The suit against the Armstrongs i as representatives of a Christian civilization. The real danger that threatens the spread of the gospei of Christis not in the attitude of the Chinese themselves, but rather in the attitude of those foreign nations who boast of their Christian civilization. Here is where the fight is the hardest and here we must focus our strongest effort. It is not a pity that it can be said of but few Christians "They live like Christ"? brought by the New Haven road to get possession of water front near Shaw's cove in New London, to which it claims ownership, and restrain the defendants from crossing its tracks by filling in and erecting wharves. $10,000 damages are alleged. damages are alleged.

damages are alleged.

In court on Wednesday Robert W. Chaffee, assistant engineer in the United States engineers' office, was called as the first witness. He described plans of Shaw's cove and vicinity made for several years past, showing the condition of the water front, the depth of water, etc.

He was followed by City Clerk Harry H. Adams, who read from the city ry H. Adams, who read from the city records of the Moses Warren survey in 1807.

way of vicious customs is being pour-ed in upon her and very naturally from Japan these things reach out and touch the rest of the Orient. Under touch the rest of the Orient. Under German direction were started the first breweries in Japan; American money built the first tobacco factory in Ko-rea. Mrs. Cobb closed her paper by saying: "Both there and here there is great need for Christian people to lend their support to the great temperance Edward Clark and William Nott then testified as to land and water conditions in Bank street near Spar-yard street and vicinity in recent years while John C. Bliss, John Frown and Owen Murtha all testified to the na-ture of the land years ago, as far of the land years ago, as far ack as 1859.

BEEKEEPERS TO MEET. Fall Session Will Be Held In Hart. ford Last of Month.

The fall convention of the Connecti cut Beekeepers' association will be held in the senate chamber of the state capitol in Hartford, October 24. It is expected that action will be taker at this meeting relative to the establishment of an apiary at the Connec-ticut Agricultural college, for which the association has been working for number of years. There will be several addresses, one by O. F. Fuller of Blackstone, Mass., president of the Worcester Beekeepers'

Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

Marian and Cumberland, singers and dancers who introduced some of the very latest dances and songs proved the feature attraction on the bill at the Auditorium on Thursday.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Orchestra Organized with W. S. New-back to the limelight with a burst of appiause. Comedy was not lacking as Rance Smith, a colored entertainer of merit was on hand with line of up-to-date jokes and witty sayings that kept the house in a decidedly humorous vein. Still another comedy act on was that of Lambert and Van, two the bill for the last half of the week lively comedians who kept things humming.

In the photo-plays, Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold, a strongly drapter of the Deser In the photo-plays, Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold, a strongly dra-

Rev. Dr. Joel B. Slocum has ac ture film. The Hole in the Wall, an-other film of merit and a comedy film Snookie's Disguise, completed the bdg subject. A Farmer Who Became a Nomination Cost Nothing. Richard P. Freeman of New London, republican nominee for Congress from the Second District Wednesday filed his second campaign publicity statement with the clerk of the na-tional House of Representatives, de-claring that he spent nothing in his

The marriage of Uvmenij Chiszenko and Miss Paroska Dilmo, both of South Lyme, took place here on Wednesday, the ceremony being performed by the Russian orthodox priest, Rev. N. Nikolenko, at his residence, No. 23 Maple street. The groom is 32 and is employed in a mill in South Lyme, The bride is 24 and has been employed at housework. Both are natives of Russia. is on the republican ticket for this office, was duly made the prohibition candidate. Judge Ayling, one of the delegates said, was in the building, and he suggested that he be invited to come into the meeting. When Judge Ayling was escorted into the room and introduced he responded briefly, accepting the nomination and saying that he felt decayly honored to receive this endorse. Miss Minnie Sarah Gibbs, daugh-ter of Mrs. Marshall S. Gibbs of No. 75 Edgwood street, and Raymond Hills Brewer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. Brewer of East Hartford, were mar-deeply honored to receive this endorse ment from the party. Representatives to Legislature. The convention to nominate two representatives to the state legislature from the town of Norwich was also held, with Mr. Haglund as chairman. The men nominated to run as representatives on the ticket were Stephen E. Peckham and S. Howard Mead. Upon the advice of Organizer Cobbett it was decided not to nominate any justices of the peace, and the convention adjourned.

20th Senatorial District. Meanwhile Louis K. Burdick and Frederick L. Hall, both from Stonrederick L. Hall, both from ston, and the senatorial construction for the 20th district. Mr. Burrention for the 20th district. retary. They nominated Charles T. Hatch of Mystic for the candidate for senator and William Thomas of Lebanon for the state central committeeman. This concluded the convention

Candidate for Governor Speaks. Mr. Griffin, the party candidate for governor, was invited to address the delegates, which he did in an interesting and earnest way, declaring that the party to which he belonged had the biggest issue of the age, whether taken numerically, politically, financially, socially or morally. Professor Fisher of Yale says that the annual drink bill is four billion dollars. Beside this the tariff question pales into insignificance.

insignificance.

Mr. Griffin spoke of the advisability of filling out the list for the nominations for officers in the towns for it was by this method of keeping at it that the prohibition party had gained success in Manchester where Emil L. G. Hohenthal had been elected first selectman on the prohibition ticket. It had also resulted in the vote in Willimantic, where the highest prohibitions are successed in the state of the highest prohibition ticket. selectman on the problem of the vote in the day also resulted in the vote in Willimantic, where the highest prohidition vote polled exceeded the highest progressive vote polled 56 to 58. He spoke against the polley of increasing the tax on beer and other spirituous liquors, for he said the effect was only to entrench the traffic fect more strongly. The only logical and patriotic thing we can do is not to support the liquor traffic in any way for right is right and is bound to

The meeting adjourned about 9.45 County Organizer Cobbett, whose home is in Maine, and who has been working in the towns of this county ever since the summer, has been to cated in this city for the past four weeks and has covered all the towns of the county except Montville and tried and found true.

Mr. Mead seconded the nomination in these two very soon, and after that as well as the sentiments of Mr. Me- to be transferred to Windham county.

WILL HEAR MORE ABOUT TROLLEY TO STORRS. Eastern Connecticut Development Com mittee to Meet at Willimantic.

When the Eastern Connecticut Development Committee of the business men's associations of Norwich, New London, Putnam, Wilimantic and Danletson meets in Willimantic at 4 o'clock this afternoon, it is expected that there will be some further reports made up-on the desired trolley line from Wil-on the desired trolley and from Willimantic to Storrs.

It is also expected that Secretary C.
W. Pearson, will have a report to make on the projected plan for a series of lectures on Salesmanship, to be given before the five associations.

TROLLEY COMMITTEE HOPEFUL Refuses to Divulge Anything About the Norwich Meeting.

Wednesday's Middletown Press said:
The members of the trolley committee of the Business Men's association wept to Norwich yesterday and spent three hours with R. W. Perkins, president of the Shore Line railway. Those in attendance at the meeting were Richard H. Bunce, chairman: President George Burnham, C. B. Carlson and R. S. Lyon. The committee feels hopeful that eventually the Shore Line railway will extend its line from Chester to this city. The committee refuses to give out further information concerning yesterday's meeting. retuses to give out intriner institution concerning yesterday's meeting. President Perkins dined the committee at the Wauregan house, Norwich.

President Perkins sald on Thursday that there were no immediate developments to be reported as a result of the meeting.

LANMAN DOCUMENTS. Written at Norwich by One-Time United States Senator-In State Library.

Miss Cordelia Jackson of Washington, D. C., has presented the library of the Connecticut Historical society several papers in the handwriting of the Hon, James Lanman, United States senator from Connecticut, 1819-1825. One of the documents is the letter of Senator Lanman to Governor Walcott, accepting his appointment to the senate by the legislature of Connecticut. This is dated at Norwich, October 31, 1818. There is a letter from Senator Lanman, dated May 12, 1829, in which he resigns from the supreme court bench. Another document is a summary, in the principals of the Christian religion, with arguments to prove their truth.

Committed to State Hospital.

A man who gave his name as Morriss Woolman, of New Haven was arrested Wednesday on a charge of breach of the peace in West Haven. The man Miss Cordelia Jackson of Wash-

A man who gave his name as Morriss Woolman, of New Haven was arrested Wednesday on a charge of breach of the peace in West Haven. The man had been wandering around in the allingtown district and his action attracted the attention of Supernumerary John McCarthy, who placed him under arrest at the police station he was arrest. At the police station he was examined by Dr. Gilmore, the police surgeon, who announced him mentally unbalanced, and he was committed to the Norwich State Hospital. It is thought that the man may be the one that has been prowling around the houses of the town and peeking in windows.

Trouble on Oakridge Street. A straying chicken that was killed by an Oakridge street woman on Thursday afternoon led to a wordy warfare between neighbors and one woman threw a kettle at another. The kettle missed its mark, but the woman whom it was meant for was thrown into a nervous state and the result was a summons for the other to appear in he police court this morning.

WEDDINGS, Domanuk-Stapka Filyp Domanuk and Miss Dominika Stapka, both of Jewett City, were married here on Wednesday by Rev. N. Nikolenko, Russian orthodox priest, Both bride and groom are natives of Russia and are 22 years of age. The wedding took place at the home of the priest, No. 23 Maple street.

and see the

Waltham Royal

Snyder, the pastor, officiated and the double ring service was used. The bride was dressed in a traveling suit of old blue, with hat to match, and she carried a bouquet of bride roses. Only immediate relatives were present. Following a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Brewer will live in Norwich, where the bridegroom is industrial secretary of the Shetucket mills. Evening Post. This Watch is adjusted to temp rature and three positions. Dont fail to see it.

Guests to the number of 75 gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Martin of Mohegan avenue, New London, Wednesday evennig to witness the marriage of Miss Clara Wilhelmina Burton and Campbell Williams Bowser. The floral decorations were especially attractive, palms, dahlias and southern smilax being used with charming effect. Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth of the First church performed the ceremony.

d the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon over white silk and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Ethel Holloway, was gowned in white chiffon over white silk and carried yellow roses. Frank Coe of Greton acted as best man, and Ethel Studevant of Boston, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

After the oeremony a wedding supper was served. per was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowser were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, included in which was a silver service from the yacht Virginia. Guests were present from Boston, Winsted, West-erly, Noank, Mystic and Norwich. The newlyweds left in the evening for a honeymoon trip and on their return will make their home in Brooklyn.

The groom is the son of the late George W. Bowser of New London and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Burton of Lewes, Delaware.

Chiszenko-Dilmo.

Brewer-Gibbs.

ried at the First Congregational church, East Hartford, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. The Rev. Dr. P. Miles Snyder, the pastor, officiated and the ed the ceremony.

Bowser-Burton.

FIFTH BIRTHDAY Fourteen Little Friends were Guests Lucille May Perkins.

Dainty decorations all in pink, with

The fourteen little guests came at The fourteen little guests came at 4 o'clock and from then until 6 were delightfully entertained with the games arranged by Mrs. Perkins assisted by Mrs. William R. McCord and Mrs. Samuel C. Wilson. When the refreshments were served a particular object of interest for the children was the centerpiece on the table, a big Jack Horner pie in the form of a Jack rose from which the pretty favors were drawn. Upon going home, there was a gift for each of the guests, who had also remembered their little hostess with so remembered their little hostess with guns, Etc. a number of lovely presents.

The guests were Sybil Palmer, Clara
Palmer, Lena Crandall, Dorothy Allen, 129 Main St., Norwich, Ct.

Charlotte Johnson, Elaine Wilson Phyflis Burdick, Elizabeth McCord Cherilla Smith, Elizabeth Smith, Constance Raymond and Charles Raymon Donald Gilbert and James Williams MISSIONARY STOCKINGS.

Held Contributions by Progressive

Missionary Club Members. Wednesday afternoon, the Progressive Missionary club of the Central Baptist church met with Mrs. Eunice B. Edson, of Washington street. There was an attendance of fifteen, Mrs. Franklin H. Brown presiding. A number of members were absent because of the convention at the First Baptist church, but those present had brought along small missionary stockings, which held contributions for an special purpose. The other members have been asked to leave theirs with Miss Sarah Gardner, at the circulating library.

There was the usual sewing and reading, resulting in a pleasant and rofitable afternoon. Discussed County Milk Station In New London Thursday morning C.

D. Whitman, president of the New London County Improvement league,
Robert W. Perkins, president of the Robert W. Perkins, president of the Shore Line Electric company, County Agent Murray D. Lincoln of the New London County Improvement league and others interested in dairy matters held a conference relative to the establishing of a milk department and creamery in New London in rooms in the old Boss cracker factory, which is now owned by the trolley company. Another meeting is to be held some time in the future and an attempt will be made to interest milk producers along the trolley line.

Two Deserters from Army.

Notices from the adjutant general o the army have been received at police beadquarters of two deserters from the headquarters of two deserters from the army. One is Joseph Plouffe, who gave his residence at enlistment as Montville, Conn. He enlisted April 3, 1913, in the 157th company, Coast artillery, and is reported to have deserted at Fort Terry, N. Y., Sept. 14, 1914.

The other is Peter Mitchell, who gave his residence at 1027 Main street, Willimantic. He is reported to have deserted at Fort Washington, Md., on Sept. 10, 1914, having enlisted in the 17th company, Coast artillery, March 29, 1913.

Broke His Right Arm.

29, 1913.

While picking apples in a tree is home on Asylum street Sunday af on, Michael Clifford fell to ground when the limb upon which he was seated broke, and fractured his

FERGUSON'S

Come In Today

Colonial Watch

$37.50

FERGUSON'S

the New War Pictures IN OUR SHOW WINDOW

These were clipped from Holland magazines just received from the seat pink roses in the dining room, made a pretty setting Thursday afternoon for the fifth birthday party of little Lucille May Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Perkins of No. 175 Broad woods. Game is very plenty this fall.

ROMAN MEAL

has arrived at RALLION'S

Incidents In Society

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Sevin are at the Sevin cottage at Eastern Point

The Werwannwo held its first meeting of the season Thursday afternoon with Miss Ione De Long Haviland of

Mrs. Edward D. Fuller of Broadway gave a small tea Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Walter Fuller, of Woodbury, N. J. Mrs. Frederic S. Camp and Miss Ella M. Norton poured. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Eleanor Plant Norton and Miss Louise Tyler

John and William Stone Association The John and William Stone As-Saturday at the State library at Hart-Saturday at the State library at Hartford. Registration of new members, etc. will take place at 10:30 Program consists of an address of welcome by State Librarian George S. Godard, followed by a response by Norman Stone Platt, New Haven, Conn. President Beach Stone of New Haven will then give his annual address followed by a report of the committee that purchased the genealogical papers from the estate of the late C. S. Smith of Terryville. After the business meeting, a pilgrimage will be made to the old historical Hartford cemetery, followed by a banquet at the Hotel Bond, at 1:00 p. m.

Celebrated Business Anniversary. Peter Cecarelli entertained the employes of his garage on Wednesday evening at his home, No. 21 Thames street, in observance of the fifth anniversary of his opening in business. Those who enjoyed the pleasant evening were Louis H. Maples, John H. Stoddard, John Paradis, Joseph Bechard, I. John Blis, Lionel Etmer and John L. Harris 149 465

A GOOD COMPLEXION MEANS PURE BLOOD

Everybody that wants a fine, glowing, youthful skin, should take old reliable Hood's Sarsaparilla, a physician's prescription, which gives a clear, healthy color. When your blood is made pure, pimples, boils, hives, eczema disappear. Languer, loss of appetite, tired feeling, weakness are symptoms of impure, unhealthy blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood. Get a bottle today.

CUMMINGS & RING Funeral Directors and Embalmers

337 MAIN STREET Opposite Post Office Phone 1052-2 Lady Assistant

9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Daily m. to 1 p. m. Sundays tell you a tooth can be saved if it can't, to secure a fee for treatments. On the other hand we always advise you to save your teeth if possible. Our system of Dentistry has saved many teeth that have been pronounced worthless You're sure of absolutely honest advice here. No charge for examinations, and only the most reasonable prices for the most skillful work-always absolutely painless - work that stands the test of time.

WE NEVER

DR. F. C. JACKSON DR. D. J. COYLE

Succeeding the King Dental Company, 203 Main Street. Next to Boston Store. Lady Attendant. Phone 1282-8

when it is an effort to keep them focused on your work when they begin to pain you, it is high time we examined them for you. We will provide you with the finest Glasses mad light, inconspicuous and handsome. See us about them. We grind the Lenses on premises. Prompt service and satisfaction guaranteed in every We use the latest instruments and devices for testing the eyes, which are automatic in their readings and permit no guessevery pair of glasses. Call and

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.

Established 1872 Optical Department

144-146 Main St., Norwich, Conn.

HALLOWE'EN POST CARDS.

PARTY INVITATIONS, LUNCH SETS PLACE CARDS, SEALS,

> CAPS, NAPKINS, ETC. CRANSTON'S

FOR THE HALLOWE'EN PARTY

DECORATIONE.

COAL AND LUMBER

Free Burning Kinds and Lehigh ALWAYS IN STOCK A. D. LATHROP

Office-cor. Market and Shetucket Sta.

Telephone 463-12

Clean Coal

Service

CHAPPELL CO. Central Wharf

ALAMITE

COAL "THE BRIGHT KIND" JOHN O. PECKHAM 58 Thames St. 52 Breadawy